Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

1. Spend some time quietly reading and rereading the passage, noting the words/phrases that draw your attention.
2. Picture the scene. Where in the scene are you? What do you notice, think, see, hear, feel?
3. Take time to talk with Jesus about the times you have experienced his healing love, his blessings.
4. What might be your prayer for the coming week?

For Conversation:

The temptation for the community to take for granted all that God gives us.
