The sick - remembering, all the sick in the parish, in our hospitals and nursing homes. We also remember those who are housebound and are unable to come to Mass. We remember especially young people who are sick. Let us also keep in our prayers all those who have care of the sick and the dying at this time often putting their own lives at risk in the process..

Lately Dead: Ian Hall, Edith Harper, Dorothy McPartland's Requiem will be celebrated on Monday 24th November at 12 Noon, Damian Byrne's Requiem Mass will be celebrated on Friday November 27th at 11 00 a.m.

Anniversaries that occur around this time: Joseph Blacklock, Mary Inman, Rosanna Walton, Edith Lord, Ford Ryan, Peter James Hayward, Thomas Clarke, Bernard Cavanagh, Catherine Mayock, John Michael Coakley, Mary Knaggs, Anthony Noon, Eileen Fleming, Irene Dalton, Sylvia Lyndale, Eileen Mullen, Christina Douglas, Ella Rose Heath

Prayer Intentions - We have a team of 'prayer warriors' who will pray for your intentions at this time, send your intentions to the parish office and they will be forwarded. You can also light a 'virtual' candle on the parish website.

IF ANYONE WANTS TO ADD NAMES OF THE DEAD FOR THE HOLY SOULS BASKET BY THE ALTAR YOU CAN E MAIL THEM IN OR WRITE THEM ON A PIECE OF PAPER AND PUT THROUGH THE LETTER BOX OF THE PRESBYTERY AND THEY WILL BE PLACED IN THE BASKET

To prepare for this prayer, spend a few moments asking the Holy Spirit to open your mind and heart to hear this Word being spoken to you today

Our Lord Jesus Christ, Universal King (Year A)

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me". Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me". And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

1. Spend some time quietly reading and rereading the passage, noting the words/phrases that draw your attention.
2. As you reflect today on this familiar passage, what fresh insights do you have of Jesus?
3. 'Lord, when did we see you...' Take time to pray for the grace to be aware of how you might give life to others today

ST PETER'S HELPERS

St Peter's Helpers are still here to make friendly phone calls to people who might appreciate this. Do you know someone who would benefit from this? We are also providing an 'emergency essential shopping / errands service', for those people who are suddenly unable to get to the shops, due to sudden illness or the need to self isolate. Get in touch with us on stpe-tershelpers@gmail.com or if you do not have email, please call the church office on 0161 483 3476.

SAFEGUARDING—PARISH REPRESENTATIVE/OFFICER REQUIRED

Safeguarding young people and vulnerable adults is an essential part of our ministry as a parish and concerns all of us. Unfortunately Ali Wrigley is stepping down as our Parish Safeguarding representative/officer. If anybody would like to know more about this position with a view to taking it on then speak to Fr Peter.

BEREAVEMENT GROUP Our next Zoom meeting will be on Tuesday 24th November, if you have not joined us before and would like to then please get in touch with Rachel and she will send you the link, or you can connect with us by phone. We have a really good chat and always a laugh, plus prayer and reflection. Please get in touch if you would like to know more about the Zoom meeting

SHINE.... Now's the time to shine!

We are hoping to produce another issue of Shine, our magazine that highlights what's going on in our two parish communities and we're looking to you to share items of interest. We're not looking to focus on COVID-19, but rather to inspire people. So here are some ideas to consider:

- ✦ Have you started any new hobbies?
- ✦ Any exciting family news you can share?
- ✦ If you're involved in any parish group, how have you adapted in recent months?

If you managed to get away for a few days, did you do anything unusual?

This is the time to get your thinking caps on and share something interesting, cheerful or heartwarming. We're looking to publish Issue 12 of Shine at Christmas, so the very last day for sending your contributions will be Sunday 29 November. Words and pictures, please to terrythiele@hotmail.co.uk. We look forward to hearing from you. Thank you

ST. PETERS'S PARISH BOOK CLUB

We have had our first Zoom meeting and have decided that our focus read for this month is The Dutch House by Ann Patchett - it is set over the course of five decades and is a dark fairy tale about two people who cannot overcome their past.

We would also like to recommend, The Thursday Murder Club by Richard Osman, Those who are Loved by Victoria Hislop, Somebody I Used to Know by Wendy Mitchell, The Secret Supper by Javier Sierra and My Grandmother Sends Her Regards and Apologies by Frederik Backman

We will be meeting via Zoom on Tuesday 24th November at 7.30pm - please email ajmcgarr68@outlook.com or telephone Alison McGarr 07792 017152 if you would like to be sent the Zoom link.

STOCKPORT FOODBANK

We have had an URGENT request from the Foodbank asking for parishioners to leave food in the baskets at Sainsbury's or Asda or if you prefer send a cheque to them at Hazel Grove Baptist Church, Station Street, Hazel Grove, Stockport SK7 4EX.

CHRISTMAS DECORATING

We are planning to decorate the benches in the Church at Christmas with knitted Christmas tree bunting. We will need about 200 tress knitted to decorate all the benches. Ann Munnelly will then attach them to ribbon to make sure they are all the right size. If you are able to knit and have time to help please contact Ann ann.munnelly@gmail.com or call 01625 874488. Ann is happy to get you the wool. The pictures and a pattern can be found on the Parish Website. On the Newsletter section.

The Bishop writes

Thank you for reading about the Clergy Education and Training Fund and for your interest in helping future generations of priests. I know there are many calls on your generosity during this public health crisis, and so I ask you to help however you are able the men who are coming forward to serve the mission of the Diocese. This is in every sense an investment in the future of our Shrewsbury Diocese and its life and mission in the years to come. With every good wish Mark , Bishop of Shrewsbury

FROM FR PETER

Well this is a bumper edition of the newsletter this week with nine pages for you all to plough through. At least you cannot say that you don't have time to read it all. Everyone seems to be waiting to see what the Prime Minister has to say about Christmas Celebrations and as soon as he does we will let you know what we are planning. It does look as if most people's connection with church this Christmas will be through the live stream and we are planning accordingly. But continue to watch this space.

Next week we will begin the season of Advent which for many people is a frantic time for shopping and making merry so that by the time Christmas comes they are exhausted! We should try and approach Advent a little differently and perhaps the series of reflections on prayer that are currently appearing in the newsletter will help with that. Further on in this weeks bulletin is some news from Aid to the Church in Need with news of some events on line on this coming Wednesday—Red Wednesday which will highlight some of the excellent work ACN do in raising awareness of what is happening to some Christians in other parts of the world. Although we may feel peeved about being locked out of church its nothing compared to what some of our brothers and sisters have to put up with just because they are following the Lord.

On the very last page there is an invitation to the Mayor of Stockport's Annual Prayer Breakfast which this year is a virtual breakfast which means you can watch it in the comfort of your own home, (just like Mass at the moment!) It is an opportunity to pray for our local community and hear some interesting speakers.

So there is lots to read this week and don't forget we are looking for a Parish Safeguarding rep, see page 2 for the note about that. Recent reports remind us how important this is in the life of the parish and wider church.

Someone sent me this week's picture which I thought might cheer everybody up after this week when some days the sun didn't put in an appearance.

Take care, wash your hands, don't forget your mask etc etc etc

The wife said " here's €20, get the dog a warm jacket, if there's any money left, get yourself a beer" .

Fr Peter

Some of you will know Celia Bermingham from the Guided Prayer Weeks and from time to time she will be sending us some articles for reflection on our prayer lives. Here's another one continuing from last week, so find a quiet 10 minutes during lockdown and have a read. If you are working from home then nobody will know what you are reading!!!

Week 2.

PRAYER HAS TO BE ADULT.

REFLECTION: What does this mean? What is meant when we say that prayer should be adult? What is adult prayer? A simple example should clarify this.

If we love someone, a husband or wife, child or parent or a special friend, do we set aside certain times of each day to say certain words to them? Do we repeat those words 10 times or 50 times or more? Do we count the words which we say? Do we measure our love and affection by the number of times we speak to them each day or by the number of times we repeat the same phrase?

Do we have to adopt a certain position or posture to say these words or be in a certain place? Do we have to be with others when we say them? Do we need to set aside one day each week to say them?

If you're thinking that this is silly, that's good because no one with any sense would treat another person like this. We would not consider treating friends like this so why should we treat God/Jesus like this? If you find that your prayer life has not changed all that much from when you were little, then, like me, you need to have a look at your prayer life and change it because we are no longer children but adults with adult needs, adult hopes and adult expectations and God hopes and expects us to approach him as grown up, thinking, loving adults.

A real, adult relationship is built on knowing a person, their likes and dislikes, their interests and their way of life. Children become friends very easily. Small children will return from their very first day at school saying that they have a best friend. That is lovely and to be rejoiced in but, as we know, best friends today are not necessarily best friends tomorrow. As we grow older, we are more discerning. We meet and like people but we take our time. We find ways of meeting them, sharing with them gradually confiding in them and trusting them. This is normal. So, let us apply this to our spiritual life.

We meet God, in fact we met God early in life. We were introduced by parents, teachers, priests or pastors. God was someone very special. Someone we should talk to. Someone we should ask things of. Someone who would answer and fulfil our desires and wants. To children He seemed to be something similar to Father Christmas. He had gifts for us. He could give us what we wanted. We were taught that he could give health to the sick among us or stop someone from dying, if we asked often enough. He could look after Mummy and Daddy and other members of the family. In the eyes of many he was simply a miracle worker but a miracle worker who needed us to tell him what we wanted him to do for us. As a result, prayer became a time of asking, perhaps with a word or two of thanks but precious little else.

However, as we have grown older, have we changed our attitude to him. Do we still think of him only as the provider, the miracle worker, the healer? He is these things but so much more.

God created us. He created us because he loves us. He created me individually, differently, uniquely. He made me because he loved me, wanted my friendship, my love, my companionship and my worship. He wanted my friendship at this time in history, at this time in this country, at this time in this community. Our birth, our life's pattern, our growing up has been as he wanted it because he wanted us to be as he planned. He wants us to be the person he envisaged from all eternity. He planned us from all eternity. He knew exactly, from all eternity who we would be, who we would know, where we would live, what we would do, be and become. He knew us and desired our friendship, our close friendship with him.

This is what he asks of us, only this, to become his friend, his close companion, his nearest and dearest.

He wants us to stay by his side, loving him, supporting him and his interests and being in constant contact with him. He wants us to treat him as we do our friends. We keep in touch, we think of them, we talk to them. We send gifts and we remember their special memories. We share our lives with them and we have no secrets.

If we treat God like our special friend then our prayer life will become truly adult, worthwhile and valuable.

EXERCISE: SET ASIDE HALF AN HOUR
LIGHT A CANDLE

ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT TO ENLIGHTEN YOU

READ: St John Chapter 3 vv 1-21 and think about this passage and the relationship between Jesus and Nicodemus. Make it your own by putting yourself into the shoes of Nicodemus and learning with him. He was getting to know Jesus as a friend. He was asking questions/advice/support in his faith. By asking he was revealing his needs, his hopes and his desire to be closer to Jesus. He was learning to know Jesus. He was deepening his knowledge of Jesus. He was praying. Try and pray with Nicodemus. Especially, ask Jesus for the grace to know him as one adult to another; a person seeking to know another so as to become friends.

Sit with Jesus. Keep him company. Think of him as needing your closeness, which he does. Let him speak with you and learn to listen as did Nicodemus.

Next week we shall speak of how

PRAYER MUST BE A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD WHO LOVES YOU IMMENSELY.

STOP RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION

#RedWednesday
SUPPORTING THE FAITHFUL WORLDWIDE

STOP CHRISTIAN PERSECUTION

It is thanks to you - and your generosity and support - that #RedWednesday has been successful in shining a light on persecuted Christians. Our fifth #RedWednesday is barely 3 days away and this year we need your help to free unjustly detained Christians such as 14-year-old Maira from Pakistan .

#RedWednesday - 25th November 2020

- advocates for the well-being, rights and freedom of persecuted Christians
- calls for fair treatment of all faith groups and of those of no faith
- educates people on why religious freedom is so important
- encourages bridge-building between faith groups

There is evidence that through the Covid-19 pandemic Christians have suffered enormously, especially in countries like Pakistan and China, where they have been denied emergency help and even blamed for the pandemic.

FIND OUT ABOUT MAIRA AND OTHERS LIKE HER

Visit our #RedWednesday Advocacy page to find out more about Maira Shahbaz and others we are advocating for.

Sign up for our Advocacy Welcome Pack and find out how you can help. The pack comes with an overview of our current advocacy work, guidance on writing to your MP and updates on our advocacy successes. Order yours here.

Order your free copy of ACN's "Set Your Captives Free", a fresh report into Christians unjustly detained for their faith here, while stocks last. Note, the report will be dispatched after 25th November.

- Create a #RedWednesday prayer space in your home to pray for suffering Christians
- Wear an item of red and share your photo on social media with the hashtag #RedWednesdayAtHome
- Place a lit red candle (safely) in a window as a sign of hope
- Colour in our solidarity candle and place it in your front window

Health Research
Authority

The Health Research Authority has an exciting opportunity for more members to join our Research Ethics Committees (RECs)

and contribute to our work. Being a REC member is an opportunity to develop professionally and personally with regular training and support. We're looking for people who are passionate about health and social care research to review applications for research studies, particularly registered healthcare professionals such as doctors, nurses and pharmacists.

Our RECs protect research participants and facilitate ethical health and social care research. Our committees meet virtually to review applications and are made up of volunteer members who give their time to make a difference. Their work is varied but includes some of the biggest challenges we face in health and social care today, from cancer to dementia, and more recently COVID-19.
