

Are you new to this area? Can we help you?

Welcome to St Peter's, Hazel Grove

If you are new to the area, we may be able to help you settle in.

We'd love to get to know you better, to invite you to future events and to let you know about the range of activities we have here in our parish community.

So, please could you fill in your contact details, tear off that part and give it to one of our welcomers or clergy. We hope you've felt welcome here today.

Here's some basic information about St Peter's – you'll find more in our weekly newsletter. We're a large and happy parish, with lots of activities to suit all interests.

Our Parish Priest is Fr Peter Sharrocks
Our usual Mass times are Monday to Saturday at 12 noon
Sundays 8.30am, 10am and 6pm

We also have regular weekend Masses in Polish and the Syro Malabar rite - you'll find details in the newsletter.

Reconciliation is on Saturdays 11-11.45am or by arrangement. Baptisms are on Sundays and of course weddings and funerals are celebrated here – all by arrangement. It's best to contact Fr Peter before confirming other details.

We have two primary schools in the parish, St Peter's and St Simon's, two high schools and a 6th Form college.
