FROM FR PETER

The flower team have been busy all week getting ready for the Flower Festival, the gardeners have been gardening and people putting up gazebo's, the choir rehearsing, and all sorts of other activities so I do hope you enjoy the weekend because it is your feast. All we need now is the weather to continue at least dry! Do tell people to come and visit the festival –its certainly worth seeing. We welcome the Bishop for Mass today (Saturday) as well as some of the former clergy of the parish and other friends of St Peter's. We have much to celebrate for the 100 years of blessings received and at the same time rededicate ourselves to the work in hand of building up the kingdom.

The next event on the calendar will be a week on Tuesday when 16 of our young people will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation in the evening at 7 o'clock. Again you are welcome to come along and support them. Another sign of the disappearing summer is the appearance of the fixtures for the new football season. Lots of messing about with kick off times this year because of the new television arrangements, could be some supplies needed!!

LATELY DECEASED Patrick Joseph Jeffries whose funeral will be at the Crematorium on Monday July 1st at 1.45 pm and Frederick Waldron whose funeral service is arranged for Monday August 5th at 1 30 in St Peter's Anniversaries that occur around this time: Marie Hazely, Philip Goodchild, Eileen Byrne, Harry Mercer, Steve Bugarski, John Willman, Alice Kelly, Kevin Delaney, Adrian Goulden, Joan Wright, George Ashley, Michael Carley,

Sick: remembering, all the sick in the parish especially those in our hospitals and nursing homes. We also remember those who are housebound and are unable to come to Mass.

BAPTISMS:

PRAYER INTENTIONS: We have a team of 'prayer warriors' who will pray for your intentions at this time, send your intentions to the parish office and they will be forwarded. You can also light a 'virtual' candle on the parish Website.

Ss Peter and Paul, Apostles Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets'. 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said 'the Son of the living God'. Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.'

1. Spend some time quietly reading and re-reading the passage. Note the words, phrases that draw your heart and mind.
2. What is Jesus saying to his disciples – to each of us – about waiting, being ready?
3. How might you prepare yourself for the coming of Christ – the Christ born in Bethlehem, the Christ in our world today, the Christ who will return in glory.

For Conversation:

The sign of hope you/your Community might be in this time of waiting.
